六、阅读理解 (共26分, 每小题2分)

(一) 阅读下列AI模型介绍, 请根据人物需求匹配最适合他们的AI工具, 并将其所对应的A、B、C、D选项填在相应位置上。选项中有一项为多余选项。

A		B
A	 ChatGPT is a well-known AI model in the world. While other AIs focus on one skill, ChatGPT does everything from rocket science to daily jokes. It can chat in many languages, so people from different countries can all use it for work and study.	B	 Kimi is a special AI model because it has a very strong memory. It can remember and understand long conversations or big documents (文件) better than many other AIs. This makes Kimi useful for reading long texts, helping people save time in their work and study.
C	 DeepSeek is an AI model that is best at math and programming. What's more, it is good at ancient (古代的) Chinese. Because DeepSeek is cheaper than many other AIs, many people and companies like to use DeepSeek to save money. Although it is young, DeepSeek is already popular around the world.	D	 As an AI model, Doubao can not only understand and answer your questions well, but also have natural conversations. Its friendly language makes learning new things feel like talking with a good friend. Doubao can also express feelings like joy, anger and sadness, and it can even sound like you!

41. _____ Sarah often works with long news and hopes to save time.
 42. _____ Peter would like a friendly AI model to help him practice speaking English.
 43. _____ Sam is interested in ancient Chinese poetry (诗歌) and wants to learn more.

(二) 阅读下列短文, 根据短文内容, 从短文后各题所给的A、B、C、D四个选项中, 选择最佳选项。

Some students sat in the noisy school cafeteria. The air was filled with a mix of food smells. Max was eating his liverwurst (鹅肝泥肠). Lily was eating sushi with chopsticks. Her classmates once made fun of her for that. Eric, who doesn't eat any meat, also faced mean words about his lunch of lentil pancakes and chickpea curry. He felt sad and decided to do something to make a change.

Eric told Lily and Max about his idea and they met with Mrs. Wellington, the head teacher, after school. Eric said he wanted to plan a lunch to let students try foods from other cultures and bring students together. Mrs. Wellington agreed to let them try, and they were excited to start.

On Monday, Max was the first to plan the lunch. He made liverwurst and cheese sandwiches, but they smelled so different that no one wanted to eat them. The next day, Lily brought a menu of tuna, salmon sashimi, and sushi rice, but the
